So here his shade whose substãce is divine;
Like God in all that may his Angell fitt:
Whose light set before men like a lampe doth shyne
The Oyle of Grace and learning feeding it:
Yet like a lampe that others light doth grieve,
Still wasts the Oyle by which him self doth lieve.

See thy true shadowe Nature) and suppose
How much thy Substãce is belov'd of Harts
O Cunning if thy Mirror could disclose
His heavenly Formes of Zeale Religion Arts
